Client feedback

"We are excited about working further with Henderson after the completion of the merger with Janus. We see this as the merging together of two very strong independent brands increasing the capabilities that we can show our clients. What is important to us outside of innovation and performance is the brand and does that fit well with us and our clients. The culture we see within Henderson and to be enhanced through Janus makes us very comfortable about the quality of the organisation that we are dealing with."

Will Hamilton, CEO, Hamilton Wealth Management, Australia

"One question we could have posed was, 'Does Henderson have the footprint to allow it to prosper?' Henderson has answered that question for us. This is definitely a vote of confidence in Janus Henderson."

Chris Ralph, CIO, St James's Place, UK

"We have a strong partnership with Henderson across a range of strategies and managers. The Janus Henderson merger gives us the opportunity to deepen and extend this relationship."

Andy Moss, Chief Executive, Phoenix Life, UK

"The Janus Henderson merger is a positive development from my perspective. With $322bn under management, the combined firm will have the products and distribution reach to serve its largest clients on a truly global basis."

Jörg Grossmann, CEO, Credit Suisse InvestLab, Switzerland
