There is no excess reportable income where actual cash and other distributions in relation to the period is equal to, or more than, the reportable income in accordance with the Offshore Funds (Tax) Regulations 2009 (as amended).

Confirmations:

- The excess income is deemed to arise on 31 March 2018
- The Fund operates full equalisation in accordance with regulation 50A(b) and regulation 53(1)(h).
- The Fund remains within the reporting fund regime as at the date of this report
- The Fund declares that it has complied with its obligations specified in regulation 53 and regulation 58.

Investor guidance

New investors

If you are a new investor in a share class in the period to 30 September 2017 you should bring the following amounts into your tax return:
All distributions received in the period on the same day or after your joining date [A]
You must also bring the excess reportable income per unit in the period in as taxable income (note this is the case regardless of when you joined in the accounting period) [B]
You may deduct the equalisation against the distributions [A] and excess reportable income [B] until the equalisation is fully utilised [C]
The amounts imputed into your tax return may be reduced no lower than nil as a result of the adjustment from equalisation [C]
Please note - all the amounts in the table above are per unit and you should multiply by the number of units held on the distribution date [A] or 30 September 2017 for [B] and the number of units issued to you [C]

Please note that the amounts above are in respect of distributions from the fund for the year ended 30 September 2017.
You will therefore need to consider the tax fiscal year in which the distributions should be included in your tax return.
The distributions above fall into the 2017/18 fiscal year.
For the excess reportable income, the deemed distribution date will be 31 March 2018, therefore this will also fall into the 2017/18 fiscal year-end.
The information above is for guidance only. You should consult your tax adviser for detailed advice.

Existing investors

If you have not joined as a new investor in a share class in the period to 30 September 2017 you should bring in the following amounts into your tax return:
All distributions per unit in the period while you remain an existing investor - [A]
Excess reportable income per unit as taxable income - [B]
Please note - all the above amounts are per unit and you should multiply by the number of units held on the distribution date [A] or 30 September 2017 for [B]
No equalisation deductions are permitted if you are an existing investor in the period to 30 September 2017 and have not increased your shareholding.

Please note that the amounts above are in respect of distributions from the fund for the year ended 30 September 2017.
As an existing investor, distributions for the year ended 30 September 2017 will comprise of distributions to be reported in the fiscal year 2017/18
You will need to consider the periods when completing your tax return.
For the excess reportable income, the deemed distribution date will be 31 March 2018, therefore this will also fall into the 2017/18 fiscal year-end.
The information above is for guidance only. You should consult your tax adviser for detailed advice.
