

INSTITUTIONAL EUROPEAN INDEX OPPORTUNITIES FUND

Class I Acc ISIN: GB00B00K2V41

A sub-fund of Janus Henderson Strategic Investment Funds, an OEIC managed by Henderson Investment Funds Limited.

Objectives and investment policy

Objective

The Fund aims to provide a return in excess of the FTSE customised Developed Europe ex UK Index (the reference Index), before management fees, while carefully controlling deviation from the reference index.

Investment policy

The Fund invests primarily in:

- Shares of companies in Europe (excluding the UK) included in the reference index. The Fund's holdings are principally selected to replicate the components of the reference index. The index will not be identically replicated and this can lead to differences in performance. There are no restrictions on the size of the companies in which the Fund may invest.

The Fund may also invest in:

- Securities on other exchanges which are associated with companies that form part of the reference index
- Money market instruments
- Bank deposits
- Derivatives that allow the Fund to achieve its investment objective, reduce risk or to be more efficiently managed

In addition to seeking to reflect the index, the fund manager will make use of investment strategies aimed at enhancing returns. These seek to generate returns based on differences in the prices of securities issued by, or associated with, companies that form part of the reference index. They can include, but are not limited to, liquidity strategies (investing in 'blocks of stock' at discounted prices), and relative value strategies (taking advantage of differences between the prices of securities related to the same company. Further details explaining the investment strategies are available on the Funds' pages on our website (www.janushenderson.com).

Recommendation: this Fund may not be appropriate for investors who plan to withdraw their money within 5 years.

This Fund is designed to be used only as one component in several in a diversified investment portfolio. Investors should consider carefully the proportion of their portfolio invested into this Fund.

Terms to understand

Derivatives Financial instruments whose value is linked to the price of an underlying asset (eg indices, rates, share prices).

Money market instruments A short term debt instrument, issued by a government or company as a way to raise money. Generally considered a cash equivalent.

Shares / Equities Securities that represent fractional ownership in a company.

Volatility How sharply the Fund's share price has gone up and down over a period, generally several years.

You can buy, sell or switch shares in the Fund on any business day, as defined within the "Definitions" Section of the Fund's prospectus.

The Fund offers accumulation shares (shares in which net income is retained within the price).

Risk and reward profile

♦ Potentially lower reward			Potentially higher reward ♦
♦ Lower risk			Higher risk ♦
1	2	3	4	5	6	7

The value of an investment and any income from it can go up or down. When you sell your shares they may be worth less than you paid for them.

The risk/reward rating above is based on medium-term volatility. In the future, the Fund's actual volatility could be higher or lower and its rated risk/reward level could change.

The share class appears at 5 out of 7. Share classes in higher categories have shown greater and/or more frequent variations in share price in the past 5 years than those in lower categories. The lowest category does not mean risk free.

The rating does not reflect the possible effects of unusual market conditions or large unpredictable events. Under normal market conditions the following risks may apply:

Equities Shares can lose value rapidly, and typically involve higher risks than bonds or money market instruments. The value of your investment may fall as a result.

Country or Region If a Fund has a high exposure to a particular country or geographical region it carries a higher level of risk than a Fund which is more broadly diversified.

Derivatives and Leverage The Fund may use derivatives towards the aim of achieving its investment objective. This can result in 'leverage', which can magnify an investment outcome and gains or losses to the Fund may be greater than the cost of the derivative. Derivatives also introduce other risks, in particular, that a derivative counterparty may not meet its contractual obligations.

Exchange Rates If the Fund holds assets in currencies other than the base currency of the Fund or you invest in a share/unit class of a different currency to the Fund (unless 'hedged'), the value of your investment may be impacted by changes in exchange rates.

Liquidity Securities within the Fund could become hard to value or to sell at a desired time and price, especially in extreme market conditions when asset prices may be falling, increasing the risk of investment losses.

Index Opportunities Returns from investing in index enhancing opportunities may vary over time relative to the reference index. The managers do not, however, seek to take high levels of risk and investors should therefore expect the typical level of enhancement of returns to be low. The deduction of ongoing charges and transaction costs means the Fund can be expected to underperform the reference index. Strategies aimed at enhancing returns depend on the manager skill and decision-making; this therefore carries the risk of underperformance if unsuccessful decisions are made.

The full list of the Fund's risks are contained in the "Risk Factors" section of the Fund's prospectus.
